Interactive Museum Located in Historic Philadelphia, Steps From the Liberty Bell

THE MUSEUM EXPERIENCE

Freedom Rising
PRESENTED IN THE SIDNEY KIMMEL THEATER

Set the stage for your museum experience in this state-of-the-art, live theatrical performance that tells the story of the Constitution and the American quest for freedom.

Performance times may vary*

Signers' Hall

Sign the Constitution alongside 42 life-size, bronze statues of the Founding Fathers present at the signing on September 17, 1787.

Civil War and Reconstruction: The Battle for Freedom and Equality

Explore the constitutional legacy of the 13th, 14th, and 15th Amendments, which transformed the Constitution — and America — by ending slavery and promising equal protection to all Americans.

The 19th Amendment: How Women Won the Vote

Trace the triumphs and struggles that led to the ratification of the 19th Amendment to better understand the women's suffrage movement.

The First Amendment

Celebrate the five freedoms guaranteed in the First Amendment — speech, religion, press, assembly, and right to petition the government.

America's Founding

Featuring a rare copy of the U.S. Constitution, this gallery tells the story of America's founding principles, exploring how we declared independence, fought a revolution, learned from early challenges, and ultimately developed a new form of government.

NOW OPEN

Governing the Nation

This exhibit about the separation of powers explores how the Constitution defines roles and balances power between the three branches of government and between the federal government and the states.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

Take a deeper dive into constitutional topics by engaging with interactive shows, expert talks, or specialized workshops.

PROGRAMS:

Stories of We the People
Elementary School
This program tells the stories of five extraordinary people from American history, exploring how they were able to use their First Amendment rights to fight for change.

Battle of the Branches
Middle School
Students take on the role of contestants during this high-energy constitutional game and dive into key topics like federalism, the separation of powers, checks and balances, and the role of each branch of government.

SCOTUS and Schools Case Studies
Upper Middle and High School
In this program, an educator walks students through case studies of biggest Supreme Court cases from American history that have directly centered on the classroom.

Ask a Group Sales representative for pricing.

LIVE VIRTUAL TOURS

Bring the museum to your group wherever you are with our live guided virtual tours for learners of all ages. Virtual tours provide groups the opportunity to get a behind-the-scenes experience hearing the personal stories and historic context that bring the Constitution to life.

Available on Mondays and Tuesdays from October to April only.
