NATIONAL CONSTITUTION CENTER PROMOTES GINA ROMANELLI TO GROUP SALES MANAGER

Philadelphia, PA (January 23, 2009) – The National Constitution Center is pleased to announce the promotion of Gina Romanelli to Group Sales Manager. Romanelli previously served as PennCORD Press and Events Coordinator, a position she held since February 2007.

In this new position, Romanelli will oversee the Group Sales department and will market, book, and coordinate school group visits and group tours by regional and foreign guests. In addition, she will manage the Center's ticketing and reservation system and establish and maintain business relationships with external marketing, tourism, and hospitality organizations.

Romanelli joined the Center as a Group Sales Representative in November 2004. In this role, she worked to increase productivity in the group sales department, designing group sales promotional mailings and assisting clients with group visit logistics. While serving as PennCORD Press and Events Coordinator, Romanelli implemented the public relations and program coordination efforts for the PennCORD project and all education initiatives of the Center, including The Exchange, Constitution Day, and summer teacher institutes.

Romanelli graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from LaSalle University. She currently resides in Sewell, New Jersey.

The National Constitution Center, located at 525 Arch St. on Philadelphia's Independence Mall, is an independent, nonpartisan, nonprofit organization dedicated to increasing public understanding of the U.S. Constitution and the ideas and values it represents. The Center serves as a museum, an education center, and a forum for debate on constitutional
