

For high resolution images or to request a shoot at the National Constitution Center, please contact Ashley Berke, Director of Public Relations, 215-409-6693 or Lauren Saul, Public Relations Manager, 215-409-6895

1 "We the People" façade at the National Constitution Center

2 Students take the Presidential Oath of Office inside the Center's main exhibition, The Story of We the People.

3 Students sit at a replica Supreme Court bench to decide on landmark cases inside The Story of We the People.

4 Students gaze at the tower of law books inside The Story of We the People.

5 The American National Tree tells the stories of 100 Americans whose actions have helped write the story of the Constitution.

6 At "talk-back walls", visitors respond to the sort of broad questions the Founders considered and voice their opinions on Post-It notes.

7 The Preamble wall at the entrance of The Story of We the People.

8 The Grand Hall Overlook, which features flags representing each state in order of when they joined the Union.

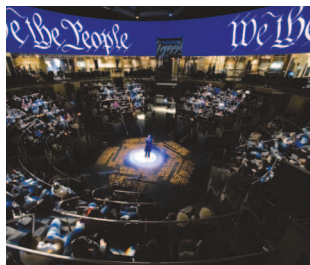

9 Visitors gaze at exact replicas of the Capitol Building, the White House, and the Supreme Court.

10 Outside view of the National Constitution Center.

11 Signers' Hall, which contains 42 lifesize, lifelike statues of our founding fathers.

12 "Freedom Rising" is a 17-minute multimedia theater experience designed to connect visitors with the story of the U.S. Constitution. This theater-in-the-round production incorporates an actor, 360° projection, surprise scenic elements, theatrical lighting, and a dynamic surround soundtrack.