dramatic excitement
and emotion of
"Freedom Rising"

"Freedom Rising" is a multimedia production designed to connect the audience in a direct, engaging and unforgettable way—to the story of the U.S. Constitution. The production vividly displays the recurring themes of our nation's history and demonstrates to the audience how they are the driving force behind this document and its future.

Now, you can book a 10 minute version of "Freedom Rising", the original production created by the National Constitution Center, for your next convention or conference at the Pennsylvania Convention Center.
