The National Constitution Center offers an exciting and fun alternative to traditional summer camps with the six-day American Adventure Summer Camp, June 26 through July 1, 2006. Participants will have an opportunity to gain experience in songwriting, theater, art and dance all while learning how to exercise and incorporate good citizenship in their daily lives. ## ADD ONE/NCC SUMMER CAMP

Located at 525 Arch Street on Philadelphia's historic Independence Mall, the National Constitution Center is an independent, nonpartisan, nonprofit organization dedicated to increasing public understanding of the U.S. Constitution and its relevance to Americans' daily lives. Opened on July 4, 2003, the museum dramatically tells the story of the Constitution from Revolutionary times to the present through more than 100 interactive, multimedia exhibits, film, photographs, text, sculpture and artifacts, and features a powerful, award-winning theatrical performance, "Freedom Rising".

The National Constitution Center also houses the Annenberg Center for Education and Outreach, which serves as the hub for national constitutional education and debates, and as a home for visiting scholars. Also, serving as a nonpartisan forum for constitutional debate, the Center presents – without endorsement – programs that contain diverse viewpoints on a broad range of issues.
