NATIONAL CONSTITUTION CENTER DISHES OUT DOUBLE DOSE OF SWEETS

Philadelphia, PA (January 7, 2005) – Philadelphians can indulge their sweet tooth at the National Constitution Center on Thursday, February 3 during a special screening of Chocolat, presented in partnership with Starbucks Coffee Company and Smooth Jazz WJJZ 106.1.

The screening will begin at 7 p.m. in the Kirby Auditorium of the Annenberg Center for Education and Outreach, and will be accompanied by free samples of Starbucks' new Chantico™ drinking chocolate. Guests will also enjoy WJJZ smooth jazz with radio host Michael Tozzi and have the chance to win free prizes! Admission is free, but reservations are required. Please visit www.wjjz.com to register.

Chantico™ drinking chocolate is distinctly different from hot chocolate. The creamy texture and full-bodied flavor of Chantico™ drinking chocolate is derived from using the finest cocoa ingredients steamed with whole milk.

Admission to the National Constitution Center is $7 for adults and $5 for seniors ages 62 and up, children ages 4-12, and military personnel. Group rates are also available. For more information, call 215.409.6600 or visit www.constitutioncenter.org.

The National Constitution Center, located at 525 Arch St. on Philadelphia's Independence Mall, is an independent, nonpartisan, nonprofit organization dedicated to increasing public understanding of the U.S. Constitution and its relevance to Americans' daily lives. Opened on July 4, 2003, the museum dramatically tells the story of the Constitution from Revolutionary times to the present through more than 100 interactive, multimedia exhibits, film, photographs, text, sculpture and artifacts, and features a powerful, award-winning theatrical performance, "Freedom Rising". For more information, call 215.409.6600 or visit www.constitutioncenter.org.
