'TIS THE HOLIDAY SEASON....
THE NATIONAL CONSTITUTION CENTER
CELEBRATES HOLIDAYS WITH A SPECIAL TICKET OFFER
FOR VISITORS, FRIENDS, AND FAMILY

Offer valid December 22 through December 31, 2008

Philadelphia, PA (December 19, 2008) – 'Tis the season for giving and the National Constitution Center is giving a gift to all of its visitors, their friends and families by offering a special discount during the holidays. Beginning December 22, 2008, all visitors will get one ticket FREE when they purchase two at regular price. All tickets must be used on the day of purchase and this special offer is valid only through December 31, 2008.

In addition to admission to The Story of We the People, the Center's main exhibition, visitors will have the opportunity to join in various programs that celebrate the season and the diversity of American culture. In anticipation of the upcoming America I AM: *The African American Imprint exhibition, visitors are invited to join the National Constitution Center for "Celebrating Our Imprint: The Mosaic of American Culture," a series of events that celebrates the diversity of American culture through the crafts, customs, and celebrations of its people. Guests will have the chance to explore traditions from around the world and create their own "We the People" tile as part of a special mosaic. Special themed crafts, events, food and live performances will showcase the influence of several cultures on our own. Guests will have the chance to try Mexican hot chocolate, design gingerbread houses, dance to samba music, learn African American ring and clapping games, or write constitutional haikus. Visit www.constitutioncenter.org for a detailed schedule of programs and events.

The National Constitution Center, located at 525 Arch St. on Philadelphia's Independence Mall, is an independent, nonpartisan, nonprofit organization dedicated to increasing public understanding of the U.S. Constitution and the ideas and values it represents. The Center serves as a museum, an education center, and a forum for debate on constitutional issues. The museum dramatically tells the story of the Constitution from Revolutionary times to the present through more than 100 interactive, multimedia exhibits, film, photographs, text, sculpture and artifacts, and features a powerful, award-winning theatrical performance, "Freedom Rising". The Center also houses the Annenberg Center for Education and Outreach, which serves as the hub for national constitutional education. Also, as a nonpartisan forum for constitutional discourse, the Center presents – without endorsement – programs that contain diverse viewpoints on a broad range of issues. For more information, call 215.409.6700 or visit www.constitutioncenter.org.
