NATIONAL CONSTITUTION CENTER WELCOMES JASON ALLEN AND JEFF STERN AND PROMOTES JENNIFER DARLEY, KELLIE BRIELMAIER, AND NICOLE ALBERT

Philadelphia, PA (November 5, 2008) – The National Constitution Center announces the appointment of Jason Allen as National Student Programs Manager and Jeff Stern as International Engagement Manager. The Center is also pleased to announce the promotion of Jennifer Darley to Vice President of Business Enterprises, Kellie Brielmaier to Senior Manager of Facility Rentals, and Nicole Albert to Facility Rentals Event Manager.

Prior to serving as National Student Programs Manager at the National Constitution Center, Jason Allen was the Eastern Region Program Coordinator for the Pennsylvania Coalition for Representative Democracy (PennCORD), for which the Center is a founding partner. In his new role, Allen will be responsible for the coordination and project management of The Exchange program, designed to ignite a constitutional dialogue about hot topics among high school students. Allen graduated from Montclair State University, summa cum laude, with a BA in History and Education in 2001. He currently resides in Langhorne, Pennsylvania.

Prior to joining the Center as International Engagement Manager, Jeff Stern lived and worked in Kabul, Afghanistan, as part of the Goldman Sachs “10,000 Women” Initiative, a pioneer program educating businesswomen in emerging economies. He also served as Deputy Director of the American University of Afghanistan Professional Development Institute, and founded and served as president of Cultural Convergence International, a non-profit organization dedicated to cross-cultural outreach and exchange programs in developing countries. In his new position, Stern will be responsible for managing the Center's relationships with institutions and agencies in emerging democracies such as Afghanistan. Stern graduated from Duke University with a BA in Journalism and Public Policy. He currently resides in Center City Philadelphia.

Jennifer Darley joined the National Constitution Center in 2003 as Facility Rentals Coordinator, and most recently served as Senior Director of Facility Rentals and Special Events, responsible for sales, marketing, logistics, and food and beverage management. As Vice President of Business Enterprises, she will oversee facility rentals, concessions and catering, retail, parking, and new business development. Darley received a double undergraduate degree from the University of Delaware with a BS in Business Administration and a BA in Psychology. She currently resides in West Conshohocken, Pennsylvania.

As Senior Manager of Facility Rentals, Kellie Brielmaier will be responsible for the development, implementation, and management of the sales and marketing of the Center as a special events venue. Brielmaier joined the Center in 2006 as Facility Rentals Sales Manager. Before joining the Center, she served as the Sales Manager for the Radisson Plaza-Warwick Hotel in Philadelphia, Assistant to the Executive Vice President of The Franklin Institute, and Account Services Coordinator for Global Events Partners. Brielmaier graduated from Elon University with a BA in Journalism. She currently resides in the Graduate Hospital section of Philadelphia.

Nicole Albert joined the Center in 2007 as Facility Rentals Coordinator. In her new role as Facility Rentals Event Manager, she will be responsible for logistical coordination of all special events, as well as the organization, development, and execution of client services for the Facility Rentals department. Prior to joining the Center, she served as Administrative Assistant for D4 Creative Group. Albert graduated from Shippensburg University with a BA in Communications and Journalism. She currently resides in Ambler, Pennsylvania.

ADD TWO/NEW HIRES AND PROMOTIONS

The National Constitution Center, located at 525 Arch St. on Philadelphia's Independence Mall, is an independent, nonpartisan, nonprofit organization dedicated to increasing public understanding of the U.S. Constitution and the ideas and values it represents. The Center serves as a museum, an education center, and a forum for debate on constitutional issues. The museum dramatically tells the story of the Constitution from Revolutionary times to the present through more than 100 interactive, multimedia exhibits, film, photographs, text, sculpture and artifacts, and features a powerful, award-winning theatrical performance, "Freedom Rising". The Center also houses the Annenberg Center for Education and Outreach, which serves as the hub for national constitutional education. Also, as a nonpartisan forum for constitutional discourse, the Center presents – without endorsement – programs that contain diverse viewpoints on a broad range of issues.
