WHERE THE RIGHT WENT WRONG PAT BUCHANAN TO APPEAR AT THE NATIONAL CONSTITUTION CENTER

Philadelphia, PA (November 15, 2004) – Pat Buchanan, former Director of Communications for the Reagan White House and presidential candidate, will appear at the National Constitution Center for a discussion of his new book, “Where the Right Went Wrong,” on Tuesday, November 30 at 6:30 p.m. The program will be held in the Kirby Auditorium of the Annenberg Center for Education and Outreach.

Seating is limited, and reservations are required. Tickets cost $6 for seniors and students, $9 for members, $12 for non-members. For reservations or more information, please call 215.409.6700 or email adultprograms@constitutioncenter.org.

Buchanan, a leading political analyst, has been the co-host of Crossfire, a nightly interview program on CNN and a panelist on the weekly news programs The McLaughlin Group and The Capital Gang. In 1992, he challenged George Bush for the Republican nomination and almost upset the President in the New Hampshire primary. In 1996, he won the New Hampshire primary, and went on to finish second to Senator Bob Dole, having received three million Republican votes.

Buchanan is a syndicated political columnist and has authored four books: The New Majority, Conservative Votes, Liberal Victories; Right From The Beginning; and The Great Betrayal: How American Sovereignty and Social Justice are Being Sacrificed to the Gods of the Global Economy. He also has written for over two decades for the Nation, Rolling Stone, National Review, Conservative Digest, Skeptic, and American Spectator.

ADD ONE/PAT BUCHANAN

is an independent, nonpartisan, nonprofit organization dedicated to increasing public understanding of the U.S. Constitution and its relevance to Americans' daily lives. Opened on July 3, 2003, the museum dramatically tells the story of the Constitution from Revolutionary times to the present through more than 100 interactive, multimedia exhibits, film, photographs, text, sculpture and artifacts, and features a powerful, award-winning theatrical performance, "Freedom Rising". The Center also houses the Annenberg Center for Education and Outreach, which serves as the hub for national constitutional education and debates, and as a home for visiting scholars. Also, serving as a nonpartisan forum for constitutional debate, the Center presents – without endorsement – programs that contains diverse viewpoints on a broad range of issues. The museum is open seven days a week, and admission is $7 for adults and $5 for seniors ages 62 and up, children ages 4-12, and military personnel. Group rates are also available.
