Dallek's writing has appeared in The Atlantic Monthly, The New York Times, and The Washington Post. He is an elected fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the Society of American Historians.

James Reston, Jr. was the Watergate advisor for television personality, David Frost, during the Frost/Nixon television interviews. His new book, The Conviction of Richard Nixon: The Untold Story of the Frost/Nixon Interviews, is an intimate account of his experience. Originally written in 1977 and now published for the first time, this book helped inspire Peter Morgan's hit play Frost/Nixon. Reston researched the Watergate record and worked closely with Frost to develop the interrogation strategy. Reston is the author of 13 books, three plays, and numerous national magazine articles. He is a Woodrow Wilson Center Senior Scholar in Washington D.C.

David Greenberg is a professor of history and journalism at Rutgers University, and the author of the award-winning book, Nixon's Shadow: The History of an Image. A regular columnist for Slate, he has written for The New York Times, The Washington Post, The New Yorker, The Atlantic Monthly, Foreign Affairs and other scholarly and popular publications. A former managing editor and acting editor of The New Republic, he holds a BA from Yale and a PhD in history from Columbia.

As President Nixon made his farewell remarks to the Cabinet and White House staff on August 9, 1974, George H. W. Bush – then Chairman of the Republican National Committee – was there. His impressions of Nixon's final hours in office as the first President to resign are recorded in his diary for that day, which can be seen in the Eyewitness exhibit.

From May 25 through September 3, 2007 the National Constitution Center will host Eyewitness: American Originals from the National Archives. The exhibition presents first-hand accounts of watershed events in American history. Through letters, diaries, photographs, and audio and film recordings from the National Archives and its Presidential libraries, visitors to the Eyewitness exhibition will gain new and unique insights into well-known occurrences.

Eyewitness: American Originals from the National Archives is free with regular museum admission of $12 for adults, $11 for seniors ages 65 and up, and $8 for children ages 4-12. Active military personnel and children ages 3 and under are free. Group rates are also available. An Acoustiguide audio tour is available for $3 per person and $2 for members. For ticket information, call 215.409.6700 or visit www.constitutioncenter.org.

The exhibition was created by the National Archives and Record Administration, Washington, DC, and the Foundation for the National Archives. The national tour of Eyewitness is sponsored by The Boeing Company. Beneficial Savings Bank is the local presenting sponsor and CBS 3 Eyewitness News is the official media partner for the Constitution Center's showing of the Eyewitness exhibit. Funding for the National Constitution Center's changing exhibits program has been made possible through a $1 million grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

The National Constitution Center, located at 525 Arch St. on Philadelphia's Independence Mall, is an independent, nonpartisan, nonprofit organization dedicated to increasing public understanding of the U.S. Constitution and the ideas and values it represents. Opened on July 4, 2003, the Constitution Center is a museum, an education center, and a forum for debate on constitutional issues. The museum dramatically tells the story of the Constitution from Revolutionary times to the present through more than 100 interactive, multimedia exhibits, film, photographs, text, sculpture and artifacts, and features a powerful, award-winning theatrical performance, "Freedom Rising". The Center also houses the Annenberg Center for Education and Outreach, which serves as the hub for national constitutional education. Also, serving as a nonpartisan forum for constitutional discourse, the Center presents – without endorsement – programs that contain diverse viewpoints on a broad range of issues. For more information, call 215.409.6700 or visit www.constitutioncenter.org.
