

ADD ONE/NEW TRUSTEES

Paul S. Levy is the founding partner of JLL Partners, which manages three investment partnerships with committed equity totaling $3.5 billion. Prior to forming JLL in 1988, Levy was a Managing Director at Drexel Burnham Lambert, where he led its restructuring group. Levy is also Chairman of the Board of Overseers at the University of Pennsylvania Law School and a Trustee of the University of Pennsylvania. Levy received his J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 1972 and his B.A., summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa, from Leigh University in 1969. Upon graduation from law school, Mr. Levy practiced corporate and securities law with Stroock & Stroock & Lavan in New York.

The National Constitution Center, located at 525 Arch St. on Philadelphia's Independence Mall, is an independent, nonpartisan, nonprofit organization dedicated to increasing public understanding of the U.S. Constitution and the ideas and values it represents. Opened on July 4, 2003, the Constitution Center is a museum, an education center, and a forum for debate on constitutional issues. The museum dramatically tells the story of the Constitution from Revolutionary times to the present through more than 100 interactive, multimedia exhibits, film, photographs, text, sculpture and artifacts, and features a powerful, award-winning theatrical performance, "Freedom Rising". The Center also houses the Annenberg Center for Education and Outreach, which serves as the hub for national constitutional education. Also, serving as a nonpartisan forum for constitutional discourse, the Center presents – without endorsement – programs that contain diverse viewpoints on a broad range of issues. For more information, call 215.409.6700 or visit www.constitutioncenter.org.

###