- Civics Kids "Let's Hear Your Voice" writing prompt for Lesson 8

Activity

As part of the lesson on civic engagement, students will voice their opinion on which project they would like to support. Have them write their ideas on colorful index cards and post them on the "Student Voices" bulletin board.

The teacher will select the number of winning projects he/she desires (1, 2, 3) based on the tally. Students not having their project selected will join one of the "winning" projects.
