

NATIONAL CONSTITUTION CENTER UPCOMING EVENTS

October 30, 2014

The Constitutional Legacy of James Madison

(<http://constitutioncenter.org/calendar/the-constitutional-legacy-of-james-madison>)

Two conversations on Madison's historical and contemporary legacy featuring leading scholars Burt Neuborne and David O. Stewart. Presented in partnership with the Federal Judicial Center.

November 3, 2014

Richard Norton Smith: The Life of Nelson Rockefeller

(<http://constitutioncenter.org/calendar/richard-norton-smith-the-life-of-nelson-rockefeller>)

Premier historian Richard Norton Smith unveils his long-anticipated biography on American icon Nelson Rockefeller.

November 8, 2014

Girl Scout Day November 8, 2014

(<http://constitutioncenter.org/calendar/girl-scout-day-november-8-2014>)

The National Constitution Center is the best place for Girl Scouts to discover more about American history, government, and citizenship! Our Scout Days feature guided tours, interactive quiz games, outdoor flag ceremonies, hands-on artifact workshops, activity tables, and more, all while meeting legacy badge or journey requirements!

November 11, 2014

Veterans Day

(<http://constitutioncenter.org/calendar/veterans-day-november-11-2014>)

This Veterans Day, honor the contributions and sacrifices of the men and women of the U.S. military with interactive programs and events, including a wreath laying ceremony, flag etiquette workshop, and craft activities. Visitors can also meet local veterans at special talks, or write letters of gratitude to those who have served in the country's Armed Forces. Admission to the museum is FREE for veterans and active military personnel. Admission is $5 for the general public, courtesy of Macy's, Inc.

November 12, 2014

Blindfolds Off: Judges on How They Decide \(In an Era of Discontent\)

(<http://constitutioncenter.org/calendar/blindfolds-off-judges-on-how-they-decide-in-an-era-of-discontent>)

A distinguished panel of former and current judges discuss judicial independence. Presented in partnership with the Pennsylvania Supreme Court Commission on Judicial Independence.

November 15, 2014

Boy Scout Day

(<http://constitutioncenter.org/calendar/boy-scout-day-november-15-2014>)

The National Constitution Center is the best place for Boy Scouts to discover more about American history, government, and citizenship! Our Scout Days feature guided tours, interactive quiz games, outdoor flag ceremonies, hands-on artifact workshops, activity tables, and more, all while meeting merit badge and patch requirements!

November 18, 2014

Is the Supreme Court Objective? Cases For and Against

(<http://constitutioncenter.org/calendar/is-the-supreme-court-objective-cases-for-and-against>)

Most Americans share the perception that the Supreme Court is objective, but is it? Preeminent constitutional scholars Erwin Chemerinsky and Nicholas Quinn Rosenkranz discuss. Presented in partnership with the Anti-Defamation League.

November 28-30, 2014

Thanksgiving Weekend: The Bill of Rights

(<http://constitutioncenter.org/calendar/thanksgiving-weekend-the-bill-of-rights>)

When asked about the history of the Thanksgiving holiday, most Americans will tell you the story of the 1621 feast in Plymouth, Massachusetts. But there is another side to the story, one that is closely connected to the Constitution. National Constitution Center will spend this Thanksgiving Weekend celebrating the same things the early Americans celebrated—the Constitution and the Bill of Rights! Families can participate in fun and educational programs, like our interactive “History of Thanksgiving” show, and make festive fall arts and crafts, including corn husk dolls.

December 9, 2014

Reagan at Reykjavik

(<http://constitutioncenter.org/calendar/reagan-at-reykjavik>)

Ken Adelman shares his riveting firsthand account of the unexpectedly historic summit in Reykjavik, Iceland, in 1986 with Reagan and Gorbachev.

December 15, 2014

Bill of Rights Day Book Festival

(<http://constitutioncenter.org/calendar/bill-of-rights-day-book-festival>)

Join the Constitution Center on Bill of Rights Day for the museum's first ever book festival.

December 15, 2014

Bill of Rights Day Celebration

(<http://constitutioncenter.org/calendar/bill-of-rights-day-at-the-museum>)

To celebrate the anniversary of the ratification of the Bill of Rights, the National Constitution Center will be counting down to Bill of Rights Day with special events and programs starting December 1, 2014. It all leads up to our big celebration on December 15, 2014, featuring activities and discussions that celebrate not only the foundation of these groundbreaking freedoms but also the actions of the American people to insure their strength. The day will kick off with a live reading of the Bill of Rights! Festivities continue with special tours of the museum's exhibitions, our Bill of Rights trivia game, an interactive Kids Town Hall featuring famous founding fathers, craft activities, and more! Admission is $5, courtesy of Macy's, Inc.