SUPPORT CIVIC EDUCATION FOR ALL

JOIN THE 1787 SOCIETY

The 1787 Society, named for the year the Constitutional Convention proposed the U.S. Constitution, brings together some of the National Constitution Center's most committed supporters who help advance our mission to educate learners of all ages about the Constitution and foster thoughtful, civil dialogue.

By joining the 1787 Society, donors not only enjoy exclusive benefits such as VIP invitations to special programs and events, special recognition opportunities, and personal communications from NCC leadership, but also play a vital role in sustaining the Center's work to inspire informed and engaged citizenship.

For more information about the 1787 Society, please reach out to Isabel Hamlin, manager of strategy and development, at ihamlin@constitutioncenter.org.

JOIN THE NATIONAL CONSTITUTION CENTER'S PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL

For those seeking a deeper connection and greater impact, the President's Council offers an exclusive opportunity to help advance the Center's mission at the highest level. This community of philanthropic leaders plays a vital role in driving transformative change, expanding the Center's impact nationwide by supporting innovative educational programs in schools and districts, fostering partnerships with civic and educational leaders, and shaping the future of constitutional understanding and civil dialogue across the country.

Members of the President's Council make generous annual gifts starting at $10,000 and often multi-year commitments that underwrite key initiatives and help sustain the Center's essential work.

PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL | $10,000+

- More exclusive opportunities for engagement, including unparalleled access to special gatherings and conversations.

For more information on the President's Council, please contact Lauren Sylling, vice president of strategy and development, at lsylling@constitutioncenter.org.

The National Constitution Center is a registered 501(c)(3) tax-exempt nonprofit, nonpartisan private organization. The official information and financial information of the Center may be obtained from the Pennsylvania Department of State by calling toll free, within Pennsylvania 800-732-0999.
