

We the Civics Kids

I Took My Frog to the Library

by Eric A. Kimmel

1. In We the Civics Kids, Lesson 2, we learned that the Constitution states that the Congress will make the laws for our country. Do you think Congress makes a law to keep animals out of our libraries? Explain your answer.
2. What do you think is the difference between a rule and a law? Who are some of the people who make the rules you have to follow?
3. If you thought a rule was unfair, what would you do?
4. Do you think every library in the country has the rule that there should be No Animals in the Library? Explain your answer.
5. Many families have different rules in their homes. For example, if there is a baby in the house, there might be a rule that you cannot make loud noises when the baby is sleeping. Do you have a special rule in your house?
