

NATIONAL CONSTITUTION CENTER

The FIRST AMENDMENT

Protecting some of our most cherished freedoms—religious liberty, free speech, a free press, the freedom of assembly, and the right to petition—the First Amendment is a pillar of democracy and the American way.

Through the 1,500-square-foot gallery, more than 20 artifacts and digital interactives tell the story of how the First Amendment guarantees these core freedoms and how it impacts us today.

NOTABLE ARTIFACTS

- Espionage Act, 1917
Frank Amari, Jr.
- Letter from President George Washington to the Quakers, 1789
Quaker & Special Collections, Haverford College
- A Civic Biology textbook associated with the “Scopes Monkey Trial,” 1914
National Constitution Center Collection
- Peace-sign armband associated with the landmark student speech case, Tinker v. Des Moines, ca. 1960s
Mary Beth Tinker Family
- The Pentagon Papers published in The New York Times, 1971
Loan, Freedom Forum’s Newseum Collection
- Pennant from the March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom, 1963
Loan, Freedom Forum’s Newseum Collection
- Petition from women in the Utah Territory, 1875
Frank Amari, Jr.

PRICING (Groups of 15 or more)

Student/Youth: $14 | Adult: $16

Pricing includes Freedom Rising and all of our exhibits: Governing the Nation, America’s Founding, The First Amendment, Civil War and Reconstruction, and The 19th Amendment, as well as Signers’ Hall.

Discounted Tour Operator Rates available

BOOK YOUR GROUP TODAY!

Contact Group Sales ★ 215-409-6800 ★ groupsales@constitutioncenter.org

