Experience the Flavors of Philadelphia GROUP PACKAGE

Begin your Philadelphia experience at the NATIONAL CONSTITUTION CENTER with its must-see exhibitions, live performances, rare artifacts, and hands-on activities. Continue your Flavors of Philadelphia package at the oldest continuously operating tavern in Philadelphia and one of the oldest in the country, MCGILLIN'S OLDE ALE HOUSE. Complete your experience at EASTERN STATE PENITENTIARY, once the most famous and expensive prison in the world, but stands today in ruin, a haunting world of crumbling cellblocks and empty guard towers.

Give your group a taste of some Philadelphia history by serving up a hearty and reasonably priced lunch in a historic atmosphere at McGillin's Olde Ale House, located in the heart of Philadelphia – close to the Historic District, museums and the Pennsylvania Convention Center. The charming historic tavern opened in 1860-around the time the Liberty Bell cracked and long before anyone ever tasted a cheesesteak. McGillin's will serve up homemade soup from an old fashioned self-serve kettle, cheesesteak, brownie and beverage. Includes tax and tip.

Visitors will be inspired by must-see exhibitions, live performances, rare artifacts, and hands-on activities that bring the Constitution to life at Philadelphia's premier group visit destination. Immerse your group in Freedom Rising, the 17-minute, multimedia theatrical performance, The Story of We the People, the Center's dynamic, interactive main exhibit, and Signers' Hall where visitors can sign the U.S. Constitution alongside 42 life-size bronze statues of the Founding Fathers.

EASTERN STATE PENITENTIARY

Explore an old prison for new ideas. Through an interactive audio tour, your group will explore Eastern State Penitentiary's fascinating 142-year history, revolutionary architecture, notable prisoners and its relevance today. Learn more about Eastern State's time as an active prison while engaging in group dialogue about criminal justice reform from the founding of America to the present.
