Happy Tax Day!

Here are some helpful tips for managing your personal finances!

Shakespeare said “Never a borrower or lender be.” That may be overreacting, but make sure you only lend money to people you trust.

Always remember what Ben Franklin tells us: A penny saved is a penny earned.

Keep track of your money: Make sure all your books are kept up to date.

Be careful with credit: You should not spend money you don’t have.

Look at your income, plan a budget, and stick to it!

Pay bills on time!

Be careful with what you buy. Like Thomas Tusser said: “A fool and his money are soon parted.”

Always be careful with documents that may contain sensitive information.
