GIVE MOM THE PRESIDENTIAL TREATMENT ON MOTHERS DAY AT THE NATIONAL CONSTITUTION CENTER

Featuring Carol Berkin, author of Revolutionary Mothers

Philadelphia, PA (March 29, 2005) – Mothers get the presidential treatment at the National Constitution Center this Mothers Day, Sunday, May 8 – complete with a special brunch, massages, a book discussion, and crafts for the whole family!

Families can purchase a special Mothers Day package that includes a buffet brunch in the Delegates' Restaurant, provided by Max and Me Catering, as well as admission to the museum and a special gift for Mom. The package costs $29.95 for adults and children ages 13 and up, and $19.95 for children ages 6-12. Children 5 and under receive one free breakfast and admission package per paid adult. The breakfast buffet will be served from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Reservations are recommended. Please call 215-409-6700.

After enjoying breakfast and touring the exhibits, kids and their families can decorate Mothers Day picture frames from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.! Moms can relax with chair and foot massages all morning. At 2 p.m., Carol Berkin, author of Revolutionary Mothers will lead a book discussion in the Kirby Auditorium. Keep checking the Constitution Center's website at www.constitutioncenter.org for more surprises!

The National Constitution Center, located at 525 Arch St. on Philadelphia's Independence Mall, is an independent, nonpartisan, nonprofit organization dedicated to increasing public understanding of the U.S. Constitution and its relevance to Americans' daily lives. Opened on July 4, 2003, the museum dramatically tells the story of the Constitution from Revolutionary times to the present through more than 100 interactive, multimedia exhibits, film, photographs, text, sculpture and artifacts, and features a powerful, award-winning theatrical performance, "Freedom Rising". The Center also houses the Annenberg Center for Education and Outreach, which serves as the hub for national constitutional education and debates, and as a home for visiting scholars. Also, serving as a nonpartisan forum for constitutional debate, the Center presents – without endorsement – programs that contain diverse viewpoints on a broad range of issues. For more information, call 215.409.6600 or visit www.constitutioncenter.org.
